

Strategic Framework 2008 – 11

TIN's 'Strategic Framework 2008-11, For a Transparent Republic' - inspired and guided by three major dimensions: global, regional and institutional - outlines a broad framework with nine important strategy pillars.

1. Constituent Assembly	2. National Integrity
Objectives:	Objectives:
Making constitution making activities of CA transparent	Advocating for preparation of a national plan against corruption.
Supporting Constituent Assembly in strengthening anti corruption measures in the new constitution	Lobbying to improve service delivery to the public
Advocating for ratification of the UN Convention against Corruption	Providing technical support to state anti corruption agencies
Helping to frame new laws and regulations.	Improving transparency in government Security Forces.
	Overseeing public procurement
3. Judicial Reforms	4. Political Accountability
Objectives:	Objectives:
Establishing advocacy and legal advice centers to facilitate public grievances	Strengthening integrity features in policies and practices of major political parties
Supporting public interest litigations against policy corruption	Improving transparency in political financing systems and practices
Evaluating court decisions made on corruption related cases	Assisting inner-party accountability mechanism
Regularizing a transparent performance review of Judges in the promotion process	Instituting Property declaration system in Political parties
	Reducing pre and post violations of election rules and regulations, codes
5. People Mobilization	6. Donor Solidarity
Objectives:	Objectives:
Strengthening agenda-specific coalitions with civil society anti-corruption groups	Making Nepali foreign aid more transparent and public-oriented
Addressing the corruption complaints from citizens	Strengthening collaboration with international agencies on anti corruption agenda
Lobbying enforcement of codes of conduct for NGOs, business sector and professional organizations

Declaring a national anti- corruption day and leading national solidarity events
7. Research and Education	8. Local Governance
Objectives:	Objectives:
Awareness campaign through education, media, policy papers and forums	Organizing public hearing on budget cycles in district based public offices
Campaigning for the use of right to information act	Enforcing Citizen Charters in local government offices
Research and knowledge building on corruption and thematic issues  Training public officials, NGO activists and investigative journalists	Arranging Institutional pledges from political leadership at local government for development works
9. Sustainability and Empowerment
Objective:
Fundraising for Strategic Framework 2008-11 and projects	Monitoring and Evaluation of activities
Building additional capabilities of TIN and its Support Groups	Establishing an Endowment Fund
Strengthening Membership base and its outreach	